

If I am finding it hard to get my child to school

Contact the school straight away. We appreciate that sometimes situations change. Pupils change. Things happen that they don't feel they can deal with. By working together we can help. Listen. Put strategies in place to solve the problem. Ignoring the problem will only make it worse and we may get to a stage that we cannot help and we will have to contact the local authority