

Give one way being English, Welsh, Scottish and Northern Irish may impact your sense of sense?	What role does socialisation play in the formation of identities?	What is meant by the constitution? What are two features of the British constitution?	What is a political party? What's an advantage and disadvantage of its use to make change in society?	Give three examples of institutions of the British constitution?	What role does globalisation play in the formation of identities?	What is meant by devolution? What is the difference between a reserved and devolved power?	What are the ways a citizen may have multiple identities?	Give two examples of issues in your local community ?	Give two examples of how British society demonstrates the values of mutual respect?
What is meant by the term voter apathy? What is meant by the term voter turnout?	What is a demonstration? What's an advantage and disadvantage of its use to make change in society?	What is meant by the term English votes for English laws?	Give two examples of how British society can be considered a democracy?	What is an example of a tax paid to a local council? What is an example of a tax paid to a national government?	What are the 5 aims of punishment?	What are three examples of public services funded by tax?	Who is the UK press regulator?	What is one argument to suggest spending on welfare should and should not be increased?	What are two sources of law in the English legal system?
What is one argument to suggest spending on health should and should not be increased?	What is the purpose of the EU? What was the UK's role within the organisation?	What is one argument to suggest spending on the elderly should and should not be increased?	What is mediation?	What are two examples of questions asked in Parliament to scrutinise the work of the government?	What is meant by the law? Why does society need laws?	What is one argument to suggest spending on education should and should not be increased?	What is campaigning? What's an advantage and disadvantage of its use to make change in society?	What are two examples of debates held in Parliament to scrutinise the work of the government?	What are two examples of censorship within the media?
What is a petition? What's an advantage and disadvantage of its use to make change in society?	What are two examples of conflicts in the world today?	What are two examples of Committees held in Parliament to scrutinise the work of the government?	What are two examples of countries with high levels of censorship?	What is volunteering? How can it be used to provide a voice and support groups in society?	What is the purpose of the Commonwealth? What is a role the UK plays within the organisation?	What is a advocacy? What's an advantage and disadvantage of its use to make change in society?	What crimes are committed in the UK?	What issue has your Citizenship Action focused on? Is this a local, national or global issue?	What is the purpose of the UN? What is a role the UK plays within the organisation?
What are the different Parliamentary roles within the House of Commons?	What is censorship?	What is a humanitarian crisis?	What is the difference between proportional and non-proportional voting systems?	What's the difference between a custodial and non-custodial sentence?	What is the difference between a local councillor and a local council officer?	What is the purpose of the Council of Europe? What was the UK's role within the organisation?	Give an example of when you used Secondary research in your Citizenship Action? Why was it used?	What is the difference between Absolute, Qualified and Restricted right?	What is an example of military force?

What was your rationale for your choice of issue for your Citizenship Action Project?	What is meant by Human Rights?	What are two criteria somebody must meet to stand for election in UK General Elections?	What is meant by the term migration? What are the reasons for people migrating?	What is a risk to the UK economy? How is this risk managed? Is it successful?	What are sanctions?	What is one reason some people think the voting age for General Elections should be lowered to 16?	What is the purpose of a Trade Union?	What is the role of the Executive?	How does the Magna Carta influence the legal system today?
What is the government budget?	Why might somebody commit crime?	What voting system is used for the European parliamentary elections?	Besides your peers, who else did you involve in your Citizenship Action? Why?	What is an NGO?	Give two examples of how British society can be considered diverse?	Other than a democracy, how else can a country be governed?	What is the purpose of the World Trade Organisation? What is a role the UK plays within the organisation	What method/methods of social action did you use in your Citizenship Action? Why?	What is one way Human Rights are protected in the world today?
What's an example of a government department?	What is the purpose of NATO? What is a role the UK plays within the organisation?	What is a risk to the UK economy? How is this risk managed? Is it successful?	What are two differences between the UK Parliament and the European Parliament?	What's the role of the Cabinet?	What human rights convention does the Human Rights Act (1998) put into UK domestic law?	What's an example of a government agency?	What are two differences between the adult and youth justice systems?	What is one thing you'd change about your Citizenship Action?	What is the purpose of a tribunal?
How did you manage your time during your Citizenship Action?	What is one difference between a democracy and non-democracy?	What methods does the UK press regulator use to regulate the press?	What is the purpose of international humanitarian law?	What is the role of a metro-mayor?	What is one difference between a democracy and non-democracy?	What is one way you know if your Citizenship Action was successful?	How many articles does the UNCRC contain?	What is the role of the judiciary?	What voting system is used in the Welsh and Scottish Devolved elections?
What is the age of criminal responsibility?	What is an argument in favour and against trials by jury?	What is the role of an employers association?	What are the different courts in the English legal system?	What is an example of where rights and responsibilities clash?	What roles do the police fulfil?	Why do some want to introduce a British Bill of Rights?	What is an example of a community sentence?	Which organisation looks after those injured in war?	What is lobbying? What's an advantage and disadvantage of its use to make change in society?